

Parental Consent for Child to Volunteer

The Momentum Group dba Create Common Good (hereafter called CCG), a 501(c)(3) nonprofit uses food to change lives and build healthy communities. CCG encourages and appreciates the efforts of volunteers under the age of 18. Before a child begins volunteering, however, we require consent from the parent(s) or legal guardian(s). To consent, please read and sign the form below. Thank you, don't hesitate to contact us with questions.

If a child has more than one parent or guardian, singular references should be read as plural. Both parents/guardians must fill out and sign this form.

By signing this form, I, the parent or legal guardian of the child named above, consent to the child's participation in volunteer activities organized by CCG. I understand that the child will be provided with orientation and training necessary for the safe and responsible performance of the volunteer duties and will be expected to meet all the requirements of the position, including compliance with CCG's policies and procedures. I understand that my child will receive no monetary compensation for this work. I understand that I, the parent or legal guardian, am responsible for transporting the child to and from the volunteer location and that the child must be picked up promptly. I understand that CCG is not responsible for supervising the child before or after the designated/agreed upon volunteer time. I also understand that if the child does not come properly prepared for the environment or does not adhere to CCG's standards of conduct, the child will be asked to leave and it is the parent/guardian's responsibility to arrange transportation.

I also understand that inherent risks may be associated with volunteer activities, including but not limited to cuts from using gardening implements (hoes, shovels, machetes and other garden hand tools), insect bites, injury due to contact with animals (rabbits, gophers, rock chucks, snakes – including rattlesnakes), sunburn, heat related illness (heat stroke, dehydration, heat exhaustion, heat rash), allergic reactions, injury due to uneven terrain (including sprained ankle, broken bones), scrapes, abrasions, splinters, blisters, paralysis and death, and will not hold CCG accountable or liable for any injury that unintentionally result from the child's participation, or that arises during time spent volunteering due to any underlying physical condition.
